

Migrating content to SharePoint from IBM FileNet

Digital workplaces are enabling businesses to work more collaboratively than ever before

This has led to an increasing demand for business critical information and documentation to be intelligently organized and classified

So it can be instantly

Best practises for migrating content

Discovering the content classification and volumes that do not exist within the FileNet environment

Identifying any incompatibilities and potential issues

Defining the scope of the migration project

Building the right information architecture within SharePoint

Enable automation as much as possible

Defining the migration process based on business priorities

Proventeq's AI powered Migration Accelerator tool maximises the potential of your content information and management infrastructure before, during and after the migration process

